THE PITIFUL STORY TOLD BY VICTIMS

MISS WARRINGTON AN APT WITNESS

Recites Story of Her Relations
With Maury Diggs.

NO EFFORT TO SHIELD HERSELF

Testifies She Was Not a Willing Party to Any Move On the Part of Defendant That Did Not Include Her Marriage to Him in a Short Time—The Elopement of the Quartet to Reno and Other Incidents.

San Francisco, Aug. 13.—Showing abundant evidence of the strain under which she was laboring, but still collected enough to give direct answers to questions, Miss Martha Warrington, 19, recited in United States court the story which is expected to play such an important part in the trial of Maury Diggs for violation of the white slave law.

For an hour and a half the young woman replied steadily to the questions by which Assistant District Attorney General Roche drew from her the story of her first acquaintance and friendship with Diggs, the course of intimidation by which she swore that the former state architect and his chum, Caminetti, induced her and Lola Norris to elope with them, of the preparations for the runaway and of the journey to Reno on March 10.

Prosecutor Roche allowed Miss Warrington to give her testimony in her own way. For more than an hour she submitted to the gaze of the curious and the cross-examination of Attorney Coblin for the defense which followed. She told of meeting Diggs for several weeks before the beginning of the Reno elopement; of friendly relations between her chum, Lola Norris, and Diggs' chum, Caminetti; of how for two weeks before March 10, when the elopement to Reno took place, Diggs and Caminetti coaxed her and Miss Norris to leave the state with them; of Diggs promising to divorce his wife in Reno to marry her, and of a similar promise made by Caminetti to Miss Norris.

The witness insisted she and her chum at first refused to acquiesce in an elopement and told how Diggs and Caminetti enticed her and Miss Norris into running away with them, using as a club the statement that Mrs. Diggs and Mrs. Caminetti were preparing to swear out warrants for the girls' arrest and their prosecution in the juvenile court of Sacramento.

She then declared the day before the quartet fled Diggs intimidated her into the journey by informing her a Sacramento newspaper was about to publish a sensational story concerning her relations with Diggs and that of Miss Norris and Caminetti. She finally gave way and believed the stories. Caminetti won over Miss Norris by similar methods, the witness said, by telling Miss Norris that he too was having trouble with his wife and that he intended to divorce her and marry Miss Norris.

The story of the intimate relations of the quartet in the Pullman en route to Reno was bared by the witness. During the recital of her sordid tale Miss Warrington made no endeavor to shield herself, apparently feeling somewhat justified for her conduct, for she believed that Diggs intended to make her his wife after divorcing Mrs. Diggs.

Attorney Coblin tried to make the witness admit she entered into the Reno elopement in a happy frame of mind and that she joined the party for the purpose of "having a good time." The witness indignantly denied she was a willing party to any move on the part of Diggs that did not include her marriage to him in a short time.

These "Law Abiding" Suffragettes Hope to Drive Out the Militants, Yet Gain the Vote In England.

They called themselves "law abiding suffragists," and they paraded in London without trying to smash windows, set off would be bombs or burn down empty houses. The picture shows the leaders of the procession on horseback surrounded by a dense throng. The sympathy of the crowd was with the women, for the London populace is heartily tired of the recent outrages of the militants. These law abiders hope to head a movement which will eventually drive the militants out and at the same time gain the vote for women.

CARS IN BIG CRASH

SEVEN PERSONS HURT

Streetcars Meet in Collision at Approach to Suspension Bridge.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 13.—Seven persons were injured, three seriously, here when two South Covington and Cincinnati street railway cars crashed together at the Ohio approach of the suspension bridge. The refusal of the brakes to work properly on one car that was descending a slight incline caused its speed to increase until it crashed into the rear end of a car that preceded it. Both cars were crowded at the time.

E. T. Speers, conductor of the front car, and Roe Martin and Stella Brinton, Covington, Ky., were removed to the city hospital and it is believed they are suffering from internal injuries.

There is not any virtue the exercise of which even momentarily will not impress a new fairness upon the features.—Ruskin.

FIRST STEP IN PEACE PROGRAM

Lind Calls Upon Mexican Minister of Foreign Relations.

ENCOURAGED ADMINISTRATIONS

Japanese Government Decides Not to Receive Diaz as the Official Representative of Provisional President Huerta—United States Practically Assured of the Moral Support of the Powers.

Washington, Aug. 13.—Intelligence from the Mexican capital that John Lind, the special envoy of President Wilson, and Frederico Gamboa, Mexican minister of foreign relations, had established unofficial relations by a personal meeting, brought encouragement to administration officials here. It was felt by them that the first step in the program of the American government to throw its influence in the direction of a quiet and peaceful settlement of the revolutionary troubles had succeeded. The incident, however, will not change the procedure previously outlined to Mr. Lind before he left Washington. He will submit all his representations to Charge O'Shaughnessy, who will transmit them in accordance with diplomatic proprieties to the Mexican minister of foreign relations.

The meeting of Mr. Lind and Minister Gamboa, however, was looked upon by officials here as the beginning of frank, though unofficial relations, through which the Mexican government might be informally and the more fully acquainted with the ideas of the Washington administration.

THE DESIGNING YOUNG THING

YOUNG WOMAN HELD WITH HER PARENTS

Charged With Having Fleeced Lovelorn Bachelors.

Princeton, Ind., Aug. 13.—What is said by federal officials to be one of the slickest schemes for mulcting lovelorn bachelors was uncovered with the arrest of Miss Mable Ferris, 35, and her father, Martin W. Ferris, and her mother, Emma, members of a prominent family. They are charged with using the mails to defraud.

The officers say they have complaints from more than a score of men in 20 states. A large number of the dupes lived in Illinois and Ohio and the officers declare they are on the trail of about 100 more.

The names of the complainants are withheld. It is claimed that under the name "Susie Leyers," Miss Ferris would insert matrimonial advertisements in newspapers in widely separated sections of the country. She would invite correspondence and engage herself to the applicant. She would ask him to send her money to come to him, it is said, and in many cases received gifts of jewelry.

When the correspondence had reached this point an "uncle" would open one of the letters "by mistake." He would write to the man that he had just deaths a la Pompadour, on and black velvet gives a note contrast and outlines a rather high waist line.

MEEKISON HELD TO GRAND JURY

Waives Examination When Arraigned In Referendum Case.

CARGOULD ALSO BOUND OVER

Equity Association's Attorney Gives Out Statement Charging That Meekison Waived In Order to Cut Off Testimony at This Time—Numerous Conferences Precede the Court Hearing at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 13.—C. C. Meekison, Henry county auditor, waived examination when arraigned in Justice Calvert's court on a charge of attempted robbery of Warnes and Kilpatrick law referendum petitions from the Ohio Equity association. He was bound over to the grand jury John D. Cargould of Akron, alleged to be an accomplice of Meekison, also waived examination and was held to the grand jury. Meekison's bond was continued at $5,000. Cargould's bond was also fixed at $5,000 and was immediately provided.

It is not thought that the special grand jury now in session will consider the Meekison and Cargould cases, but that they will go over until the convening of the regular grand jury on Sept. 2.

Court hearing was preceded by numerous conferences. Meekison, Cargould and W. H. Boyd, attorney for both, talked over the course they expected to follow. Attorney W. H. Miller and Frank T. Dunbar of Columbus conferred with C. S. Gonswer, secretary of the Ohio Equity association.

Cargould first appeared in the referendum cases several days ago when he made affidavit that Meekison took him to the fourth floor of the Leader-News building on the night of Saturday, Aug. 2, to show him where the office of the Ohio Equity association were, Cargould desiring to see C. S. Gonswer there. Cargould denied that the visit was for the purpose of removing referendum petitions from the offices.

W. H. Miller of Columbus, attorney for the Equity association, gave out a statement following the hearing, in which he charged that Meekison waived examination in order to prevent the facts against him from becoming public at this time.

C. O. Smith, president of the Ashtabula board of review, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the referendum scandal, did not make a statement through his attorney, W. H. Boyd, as the latter had said he would.

COME HERE, SLIPPERY

WHERE IS CASTRO?

Question Again Disturbing the American State Department.

Washington, Aug. 13.—Again the question "Where is Castro?" is harassing the state department. It was learned that the United States government has no direct information that the exile really is in Venezuela leading the revolution against the Gomez administration. Castro, it had been reported, landed at Venezuela to take charge of the revolution and a proclamation soon after was issued purporting to come from him calling on the people of the country to rally behind the veteran revolutionists against the "tyrannous" Gomez.

It has developed, however, that all the information the state department has received from Venezuela in regard to the landing of Castro has been of an unofficial character.

Castro is supposed to be at Coros, the west coast of Venezuela, which is the most important place now in the hands of the revolutionists.

WIFE COMING TO THE RESCUE

STARTLING STORY TOLD BY MRS. SULZER

Signed the Governor's Name to Campaign Checks.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Mrs. William Sulzer signed the campaign contribution checks which the Frawley committee in its report to the legislature charges were used by Governor Sulzer to buy securities, according to a statement made by Senator Abraham J. Palmer, who had a long talk with Mrs. Sulzer. Mrs. Sulzer verified his statement that she indorsed these checks. Believing that Governor Sulzer would waste the money which these campaign contributions represented, Mrs. Sulzer, who is thrifty, thought there was no harm in signing the governor's name to them and depositing them.

Senator Palmer says he saw Mrs. Sulzer at the executive mansion. "Senator," said Mrs. Sulzer, "it would surprise you, I suppose, if I told you that the governor never saw these checks and that I had indorsed them in the governor's name for deposit."

Startled at this declaration, Senator Palmer asked Mrs. Sulzer to give him the details of these transactions. He questioned her closely and she explained that, knowing Governor Sulzer and his disposition to waste his money, she thought it would be a good idea to indorse the checks and deposit them to the governor's credit. She was able to tell Senator Palmer the exact amount of each of the checks she deposited for the governor. The straightforward story told by Mrs. Sulzer and her absolute unconsciousness of having done anything that was not legal so impressed the senator that he confided the story to Senator Foley and other legislators. Senator Palmer is a minister, and was elected by the Republicans and Progressives in the Twenty-seventh senatorial district. He is one of the survivors of Andersonville prison.

COULDN'T SWIM IN A HOBBLE

Girl Tears Skirt From Slit to Waist and Strikes Out For Shore.

New Rochelle, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Miss Loretta Mandeville, 20, of New York, saved herself from drowning off Long Island sound, near Navenport Neck, when the canoe in which she was paddling upset. The youth who was with her had difficulty to keep afloat until help came. The girl, finding she could not swim in her silk hobble skirt, reached down and tore the skirt from the slit to the waist and struck out for Glen Island, refusing the offer of a crew of a launch which rescued the man. After she reached the island she pinned the rent in her skirt and started for the home of a friend waiting for her escort.

REPRESENTATIVE C. A. REID FAVORS THE ELECTION OF CITY CHARTER COMMISSION

Believes That Capable Men Should be Chosen to Study the Problem of Bettering the Existing Form of Government for City Size of Washington.

ONE BIG CONSIDERATION IS INTEREST AROUSED

Election Will Cause People to Study Present Conditions and Plans Which Law Permits May Result in Great Good.

Hon. Chas. A. Reid, Fayette county's representative in the General Assembly of Ohio, has consented to express for the benefit of Herald readers, his views on the approaching election on "Shall a Commission be Chosen to Frame a Charter for Washington."

Mr. Reid says:

Commissioners should be elected to frame a proposed charter for the city of Washington for the reason that it will give opportunity to a body of qualified men to study the conditions and needs of our city government, with a view to correcting any extravagant or inefficient part thereof under the old system.

One of the greatest benefits to be derived from the selection of commissioners is that it will interest the citizens to a greater degree in the question of municipal government, and we will give all questions pertaining thereto a study and consideration that will bring us in closer touch with our city and its needs in administering its affairs.

It will give us opportunity to determine whether we have too many departments; too many officers not responsible directly for the duties generally supposed to belong to their office; and an opportunity to carry into city government business principles that will insure economy and efficiency.

C. A. REID.

GIVEN A SHOWER.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Theobald, of Buena Vista, were given a shower by their friends recently, receiving a large number of handsome presents.

ELMWOOD AID SOCIETY

The Ladies' Aid society of Elmwood will meet with Mrs. Allie Lucas on the Bogus road Thursday, Aug. 14th at 2:30 p. m.

There will be a social on the lawn at the Town Hall in Staunton, Wednesday evening, August 13th, given by the Sunday School.

WELCOMED IN INDIANA

The Daily Review of Greensburg, Ind., welcomes Mr. Walter McCoy as a boon to the farmers, in his capacity of agricultural agent.

The Review says:

"The Review enjoyed a visit this morning from W. E. McCoy, the gentleman who is to be the agent in this county under the new vocational law, and we were glad to make his acquaintance. We are pleased to know that he comes full of enthusiasm and ready to do his level best for the advancement of the farming interests of Decatur county. He says that he will not be the tool of any one or permit himself to be led around by any one. He wants the acquaintance and the friendship of our farmers, and they are invited to call at his office in the Court-house where each one will be welcome. It is not Mr. McCoy's purpose to push himself on the farmers—if they want him he will gladly visit their farms, but he has no intention of butting in where his services are not wanted. He has many plans for the benefit of our farmers, and hopes by their co-operation to work them out to the benefit of all."

WILL REMODEL HIS RESIDENCE

Dr. C. A. Teeters has closed a contract for the remodeling of his residence on Main street. Immediately north of the Y. M. C. A. building, and will add three more rooms to the building to be used as offices by himself and Dr. A. M. Bush, the dentist.

The three rooms will be added to the front part of the present building on the side next to the Y. M. C. A. and will be splendid office rooms when completed.

Work on the improvement will commence immediately unless unexpected changes are made within the next few days.

VALUATIONS OF RAILROADS BOOSTED

County Auditor Henkle has received from the State Tax Commission the railroad values in Fayette county as fixed by the commission, and an increase of $74,510 over last year's valuation was made by the commission.

Following are the valuations of the various roads touching this county:

Road	1912	1913
C. H. & D.	$537,750	$575,180
Pennsy.	420,160	443,750
B. & O. S. W.	723,460	736,950
D. T. & L.	408,790	408,790

Total $2,090,160 $2,164,670
Increase over last year, $74,510.

BROWN REMAINS IN WORKHOUSE

Efforts to Secure His Release at Hearing Yesterday Fail and Man Convicted of Bootlegging Must Work Out His Time—C. E. Baughn and Mayor Smith Were Again Present, While Mayor O. W. Creath and Judge Badger Also Take a Hand in Proceedings.

All efforts made to secure the release of Alfred Brown from the Xenia workhouse have failed, and the prisoner must continue to make brooms while working out the fine assessed against him by Mayor Creath of Bloomington.

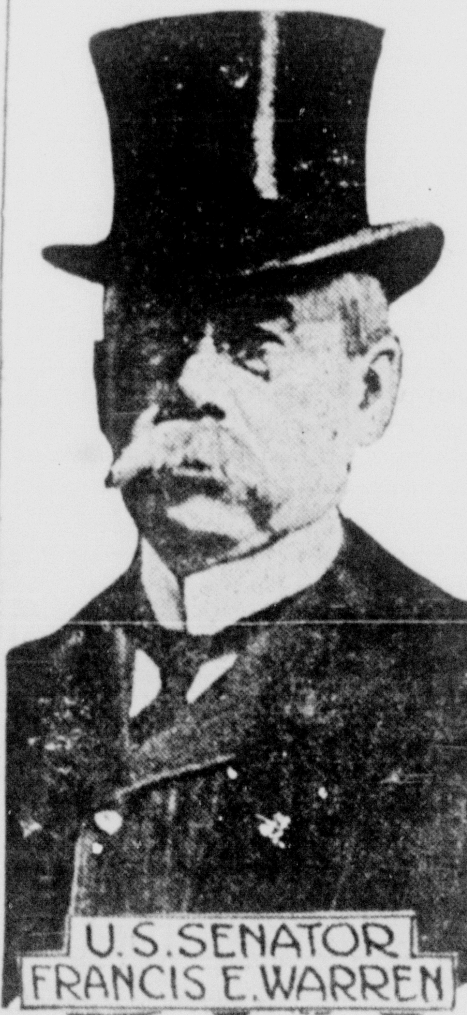

At the special meeting held Tuesday the workhouse board refused to release the man. Attorney C. E. Baughn and Mayor Smith of this city were again present to secure Brown's release. Mayor O. W. Creath, of Bloomington and Judge D. C. Badger of Columbus were present to fight the effort to secure the prisoner's release.

The Board of Work House Directors supported Supt. Crow in his refusal to release the prisoner, and their action was based on an opinion handed down by City Solicitor Darryl D. Smith of Xenia, and also of Prosecutor Johnson of the same place.

Solicitor Smith cited the law to show that the board had no right to review the case and can not release a prisoner except in an emergency and for a humane reason.

After giving their decision in the matter the case was dropped and Brown will remain behind the bars.

NEW TARIFF BILL LIKE WAR AND "WAR IS HELL" SAYS SENATOR WARREN

U. S. SENATOR FRANCIS E. WARREN

Washington, Aug. 13.—"According to the declaration of one of our great war leaders, 'war is hell,'" said Senator Francis E. Warren, Republican of Missouri, in a speech discussing the agricultural schedule of the tariff bill. "This never has been denied, and therefore, I beg the liberty of saying that this bill is to be indeed hell, so far as the farmer of the northwest is concerned. About everything he has to sell, the use of his capital and his labor, the product of both, with but few exceptions, must meet the competition of the world, with its cheap, peon, pauper labor, while everything he has to buy, barring certain occasional purchases, is taxed."

SULZER IMPEACHED BY LOWER HOUSE

Special to Herald.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Governor Sulzer was this morning impeached by the lower house assembly, the vote being 79 to 33.

Nine members were appointed to conduct impeachment proceedings.

SULZER MAY CALL OUT STATE TROOPS TO RETAIN OFFICE

Special to Herald.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Gov. Sulzer has refused to make a statement in connection with the impeachment proceedings. At one o'clock this afternoon he was closeted with D. Cady Herrick, his chief counsel. It is believed that Herrick has supreme court writ to sustain Sulzer in the contention that he is still governor.

It is rumored he may order out the troops if an attempt is made to forcibly eject him from the capitol.

WATER COMPANY IS DRILLING MORE WELLS

A threatened shortage of the water supply has caused the Washington Water Company to commence the work of drilling in more deep wells, and two such holes will be put down yet this summer.

At the present time one of the wells is down 73 feet, but the machinery broke down and it was necessary to delay while new parts were secured from a distant town. The wells will be drilled to a depth of 180 feet.

At the present time water is being used from both the drilled and the dug wells, some half dozen dug wells being utilized to secure sufficient water. A dozen or more drilled wells are also in use, while some of the drilled wells have been exhausted and abandoned for the time being, at least.

For some little time the Water Company has been pushed to the capacity of the wells in order to secure the some 800,000 gallons used each day, and efforts have been made to prevent the unnecessary waste which is claimed to result from carelessness on the part of the consumer.

THREE ARRESTS MADE LAST NIGHT

Three arrests were made Tuesday night. Garret Hodge, was picked up charged with plain drunk and placed in the county jail over night before being assessed the usual for such offences.

C. E. Barr was also thrown in for assault and battery. He lives on Cedar street and is said to be employed by a Columbus concern.

George Washington, colored, was picked up on Elm street. He had a suspicious looking sack upon his shoulder and it was feared that somebody's roasting ears or chickens would suffer if he was not separated from the sack.

POISON FAILS TO KILL.

Woman Takes Dose Which Would Kill a Hundred Persons.

St. Louis.—Edward Fisher, a photographer, and Mrs. Carrie DuBois, who weighs 300 pounds, both bichloride of mercury patients, were treated successfully by a method that St. Louis physicians now believe is an absolute cure for mercurial poisoning.

The two, who are neighbors, but have never met, have expressed mutual interest in one another's condition. Mrs. DuBois said that it was the reading of Mr. Fisher's condition in the newspapers that prompted her to swallow more than 110 grains of the poison.

This is an amount, physicians say, sufficient to kill more than 100 men, but Dr. Maurice Thompson and Dr. Walter Harrall predict that she will recover, after the application of hot water bottles and electric globes and the injection of saline solution or sodium carbonate every three hours.

AN INVITATION

To Visit Canada, the Land Of Golden Opportunities

Ohio's harvest is completed. Canada is just beginning. Are YOU contemplating taking a vacation—a breathing spell after your labors? Come with us and see land that has actually produced forty bushels of hard wheat per acre. Spend a few dollars and a little time in investigating land that is selling at only a small fraction of its real value. PRODUCTIVE LANDS at a low price is a good investment wherever located. We wish to show you that ours is PRODUCTIVE. Lands that railroads have faith in and are spending millions of dollars in building new lines through.

During the months of AUGUST and SEPTEMBER—harvest months—we are running Special Excursions to Tramping Lake and Houghton Lake District, Saskatchewan, leaving WASHINGTON C.H. on FIRST and THIRD Tuesdays.

The trip will be especially attractive as well as inexpensive. We own and operate private Pullman cars, "built for our company, and equipped with every modern convenience, and are making the very low rate of $40.00 for the round trip. Sleeping berths and meals after leaving St. Paul only $1.50 per day.

Make the trip with us and let us show you that our land is all we claim for it. Go and see the country in its actual producing stage. Make a visit to Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, and then Winnipeg, the Metropolis of Western Canada, with a population of over 200,000, and with more business than Chicago had when the same sized city.

There is much to profit by going to see this "Last West," and by going to see it when its land is selling cheap—YOUR CHOICE at $15.00 to $25.00 PER ACRE. Our terms are liberal, with one-third down and the balance in five equal annual payments.

Our $10 Per Day Guarantee

If you go with us and do not find our lands as represented in our literature, we will pay you $10 per day and expenses not to exceed five days.

SURGEON BREAKS PREVIOUS RECORDS

Dr. George A. Still, of Jackson, Missouri, who has established a reputation for his skill as a surgeon and who has operated successfully in this neighborhood, recently performed 61 operations, including two of a different kind, in six days.

The operations were performed during an osteopathic convention, and besides the large number of operations he carried on other work.

BIRTHS EXCEED NUMBER OF DEATHS

The number of births in Washington and a large percentage of the month of July, as reported by the vital statistics, exceeded the number of deaths by five. Ninety-nine births and fourteen deaths are reported.

Six of the births were in the township outside of the city. No operation has been established since March 1911.

KILLED 745 634 RATS.

Work Done by London Health Officers to Guard Against Plague.

London.—In the annual report just issued of Dr. Herbert Williams, medical officer of health for the port of London, Dr. Williams says that 745,634 rats were destroyed in the port of London from February, 1901, to January, 1912.

During 1912 1,310 rats were examined, but only thirteen were found to be affected with plague.

Plague from rats is caught through the rat flea, which, after having lived on an infected rat, makes its way to a man and bites him, thus inoculating him with plague.

MARRIES HIS ACCUSER.

Weds Woman Who Says He Stole $2,000 From Her.

Butte, Mont.—William E. Morrison, accused by Mrs. Louise Tam, a widow, of having stolen $2,000 from her, together with some diamonds, married the complaining witness after he had been brought back from Tampa, Fla., by the officers.

This action took the prosecuting staff off its feet, and the indignation of the officers knew no bounds. For months they have been tracking Morrison.

Under the Montana statutes a wife cannot appear against her husband, and there is nothing left but to dismiss the case.

DEPLORABLE CONDITION IN PASSENGER SERVICE ON D. T. &amp; I. RAILROAD

Great Dissatisfaction All Along the Road Where Public Must Contend With Trains Many Hours Late.

BAD ENGINES CAUSE DELAY AND PUBLIC GROWS DISGUSTED

One Operator, Forced to Work Day and Night on Account of Late Trains, Quits His Job—Night Train Has Delivered no Mail at Jeffersonville for Eight Days—Appeal to Public Service Commission Is Planned—Old Bad Order Cars Are Picked up Along Grasshopper Line.

Expressed over the road, passenger service of the D. T. & I. railroad has become general all along the road, and particularly where the D. T. & I. is the only line running a town. The road has been forced to work day and night on account of late trains, and the passenger service has been so poor that an appeal to the Public Service Commission is planned.

During the past week the down train was several hours late, night after night, and instead of reaching the city of Indianapolis it crawled in anywhere from 10 to 15 to between two and three o'clock, causing all who traveled on it to be detained many hours and resulting in general dissatisfaction. It is said that another appeal will be made to the Public Service Commission with a view to having that board take some action.

It has been the custom of the train of late to run awhile, and stop for repairs, and two nights last week the train was delayed for a considerable length of time, while the engine and fireman hammered the engine into shape, once more and placed it in temporary condition to move.

Monday of this week four freight trains were reported tied up at South Charleston and engines were sent to pull them onward, while the disabled engines were sent to the repair shop.

It is claimed that the south bound passenger train, due here at 2:52 p. m., has not been on time since the flood, and often runs several hours late of schedule time.

At South Charleston the operator, Martin, has tendered his resignation because he had been compelled to live so much rest and sleep on account of the train, reaching that place at all hours in the night, and at other points where it is not customary to keep a night operator, the man or men have become thoroughly worn out with the manner in which trains show up. Tuesday both down trains were far behind time.

At Indianapolis not a single mail was received from the night train all last week.

Some of the local freights instead of pulling in on time, have been dropping in several hours late and sometimes make the various points at night.

Dead engines are said to have become so numerous that little is thought of a train stopping anywhere on the road and remaining for one or more hours.

A work train is employed gathering up the bad order cars left along the grasshopper track near Jeffersonville, and the best cars are being sent away for repairs, while the worst are consigned to the scrap heap.

It is said that beginning within a short time much needed improvements will be made, and that the grasshopper division will also share in the improvement.

NOTICE TO ART EXHIBITORS

Persons desiring to make entries in the Art Department are urged to do so just as early as possible. The Superintendent will have the Hall ready to receive exhibits by Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

EARLIER CLOSING OF LOCAL STORES

Innovation Started Saturday Night As Result of the New Law Regulating the Hours of Female Clerks—Grocery Stores May Adopt Earlier Closing Next Saturday Night.

Beginning with last Saturday night the dry goods stores of the city will close at nine o'clock each Saturday night instead of ten o'clock as heretofore. Other stores, including grocery stores, will probably follow suit within a short time, probably next Saturday night, and there will be "nothing doing" after nine o'clock.

This action was necessary on account of the new labor laws which prohibit women from working longer than the time fixed by the statutes, and if they were permitted to work after nine o'clock at night the employers would be liable to punishment by fine.

Some of the dry goods stores closed the departments where women were employed and continued selling clothing and other goods where male clerks were employed.

While the law will prevent women clerks from being overworked it will also have a tendency to create a greater demand for male help, where the law does not apply.

Many of the stores of the city have been open as late as eleven o'clock and the nine o'clock closing will have a tendency to clear the streets of the large throngs of shoppers much earlier than heretofore, while the clerks will have an opportunity to enjoy an hour at the picture shows or in other forms of amusement.

The Plague of Mosquitoes

Not in the memory of Washington people well advanced in years have the mosquitoes been present in such great numbers and so pestiferous as they are this year.

In all sections of the city people are compelled to forego the pleasure of sitting out on their verandas these hot nights. The swarms of poisonous and ravenous mosquitoes drive them for refuge behind the screened doors and windows of the house and even then the insects squeeze through the fine netting of the screens or through the minute crevices in door and window jam.

The odor of camphor and oil of peneroyal is stronger by far than the perfume of flowers and scores of "prominent citizens" are busy proving an alibi for an appearance which unexplained would be taken as positive proof of a protracted spree, and of participation in a free for all fight.

No section of the city seems to have escaped the swarming myriads. People, worn out by a long day of work and intense heat, are compelled to fight off mosquitoes nearly all night or bathe the poisoned patches of flesh with such soothing lotions as they may have faith in.

There is a reason.

Hundreds and hundreds of people in Washington have long felt the need of a proper and sanitary sewer system and have for years predicted that sooner or later the city of eight thousand people would be compelled to pay the cost of trying to get along with a so-called drainage and sewer system, which would be condemned as unfit for a village of five hundred inhabitants.

The creek through the city limits, this year, is about in the condition it is every year at this season—a shallow hole of filth and germ-breeding scum covered slush.

It has been worse some years than it is right now?

True enough; but each year has contributed its army of poison spreading germs and each season in order has left behind it a larger army than its predecessor left.

That's the way these disease germs and poison bearing insects multiply.

This year sees simply that vast army of them which has been mobilizing for several seasons past, reaching out, enlarging the circle and entering upon a campaign of conquest against the people of Washington.

The mosquitoes have come to stay until cold weather sets in and unless something is done to radically improve sanitary conditions next year at this season, the new army will be more annoying in its attack and its campaign may be more disastrous than is the present.

Our Greatest Service Toward the Indian Is to Set Him Free

By FRANKLIN K. LANE, Secretary of the Interior

© 1913, by American Press Association.

THE GREATEST SERVICE WE CAN DO FOR THE INDIAN IS TO SET HIM FREE, AND THE INDIAN BUREAU SHOULD BE A VANISHING BUREAU.

An examination should be made into Indian affairs, and it should be most searching. I am satisfied that it will be easy to discover a large number of wrongs that have been done the Indians and certain and SERIOUS DEFECTS IN OUR METHOD OF HANDLING THEM.

Instead of a temporary commission, which can, I fear, do little more than unearth the various matters of scandal in the various agencies (some of which are now being examined into), I trust the congress will see fit to establish a PERMANENT COMMISSION, which shall supersede the present system of administration and have the fullest power necessary to reorganize the bureau.

This commission should get such powers as will permit it to decentralize the administration of Indian affairs, allowing great authority to competent, well paid agents in the field.

I am satisfied from what examination I have made that there are tens of thousands of so called Indians whose property to a greater or less degree is under the control of this bureau, who are as COMPETENT TO ATTEND TO THEIR AFFAIRS as any men or women of the white race. There are thousands of others of the half blood who are an expense to the government, who should not be regarded as dependent, but who should get their property and be allowed to SHIFT FOR THEMSELVES.

These questions of policy are fundamental. To deal with this matter adequately any investigation undertaken should be one that searches for causes, not for symptoms.

Poetry For Today

POSSESSION.

There's some of us has this world's goods

An' some of us has none—
But all of us has got the woods,
An' all has got the sun.
So, settin' here upon the stoop,
This patch o' pine beside,
I never care a single whoop—
For I am satisfied.

Now, take the pine on yonder hill;
It don't belong to me;
The boss he owns the timber—still
It's there for me to see.
An' 'twixt the ownin' of the same
An' smellin' of its smell,
I've got the best of that there game.
An' so I'm feelin' well.

The boss in town unrolls a map
And proudly says "It's mine,"
But he don't drink no maple sap
An' he don't smell no pine.
The boss in town he figgers lands
In quarter sections red;
Lord! I just set with folded hands
An' breath 'em in instead.

The boss his forest wealth kin read
In cent an' dollar sign;
His name is written in the deed—
But all his land is mine.
There's some of us has this world's goods,
An' some of us has none—
But all of us has got the woods,
An' all has got the sun!
—Douglas Malloch

SHIRKING HORSE CURED.

Rolls Down a Bank and Then Decided She Was Not Sick.

St. Louis—Nellie, a delivery horse of Clayton, either is an expert dissembler or her ailments are such that they baffle veterinary surgeons. After a vacation of three weeks she pulled the light delivery wagon willingly until she was about to be taken over the route again in the evening, when she lay down on the ground and groaned.

Dr. C. A. Newton, a veterinary, worked with the animal two hours, took her temperature and looked for symptoms of various ailments, but found none. He declared Nellie was "stalling," but she refused to get up. Several spectators then helped roll the horse down a small embankment.

This aroused Nellie's anger, and she jumped up and kicked her heels about the barn lot. Her owner, William Schoepker, a grocer, announced that Nellie's vacation will not be extended.

Nellie was once a polo pony. One of her specialties has been to pretend to be lame in order to get a holiday or extended vacation. Sometimes the limp was in the left hind foot, and occasionally it shifted to the right hind foot. On each occasion a veterinary said the animal was in good health.

U. S. AIDS SOUTH
IN MOVING CROPSSecretary McAdoo Orders Loan of $50,000,000.

TO MEET ANY STRINGENCY.

Federal 2 Per Cent Bonds Taken as Security at Par—Commercial Paper Also Will Be Accepted as Collateral For Loans—First Time in History.

Washington—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has taken action which will checkmate any attempt made by New York bankers in their fight on the currency bill to tighten up on loans when farmers and commission men need money to move their crops.

He ordered transferred from the treasury vaults to the national banks in the south and west from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 of the $500,000,000 emergency currency to facilitate the movement of crops. This step is taken under the Aldrich-Vreeland emergency currency law.

The secretary further made the 2 per cent government bonds good as security for this emergency currency. He has directed that the 2 per cent bonds be accepted as security at par.

He believes this will tend to force the price of the bonds up and offset the bear movement which drove them down to 95 1/2. State and municipal bonds and prime commercial paper will also be accepted as security, the latter, it is said, for the first time in the history of the government.

The secretary took the precaution to prevent banks from withdrawing from circulation all of their national bank currency secured by the 2 per cent government bonds by ordering that no bank which had not taken out at least 40 per cent of its authorized circulation should receive any deposits of this emergency circulation.

This policy is directly opposed to that adopted by former Secretary of the Treasury McVeagh, who a year ago declined to make government deposits to relieve the tight money market on the ground that the moderate surplus federal funds at that time should be held as a reserve to be utilized at some possible critical stage.

With the net balance in the general fund amounting to nearly $132,000,000, Secretary McAdoo has taken the stand that the government should anticipate the situation by placing deposits where and at the time they are needed.

If the full $50,000,000 is deposited this step will temporarily nearly double the government's deposits with the banks, which at the present time hold $58,000,000 of federal funds.

While Secretary McAdoo was announcing his plan Senator Tillman of South Carolina was issuing a statement declaring that unless congress acted quickly to provide an emergency currency the cotton planters of the south would lose $100,000,000 through inability to get money in New York to move their crops.

"US GIRLS" VERY PEEVED.

Ask United States to "Fire" Postal Clerk Who "Spoons."

Washington—Postmaster General Burleson is called upon to solve many riddles. The latest is a quarrel between young women patrons of the postoffice in a thriving western town and a woman clerk. The row was brought to Mr. Burleson's attention by the following letter:

Dear Sir—The girl in the postoffice here reads us girls cards and tells us what is in them. Also this girl has a beau, her man standing at the window spooning all the time. Wish you would look into it and change, for we are very sick of her. Farmers cannot get to the window after their mail. I remain,

The Name He Got.

In some cases abbreviating a name improves it. In others it doesn't. For instance, the Tubbess thought they were doing honor to the Father of His Country as well as to their firstborn son whom they named George Washington Tubbs.

But when he grew up the handle proved too long, so everybody dropped the George, shortened up the middle name and called him simply Wash Tubbs—Judge.

GOVERNOR NAMES CLAYTON

New United States Senator From Alabama Succeeds Johnston.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 13.—Governor Emmett O'Neal appointed Henry D. Clayton of Eufala, Third congressional district, as United States senator to succeed the late Senator Johnston, who died last Friday in Washington. The appointment is for the unexpired term which closes in 1915. The commission has been issued and it is now up to Senator Clayton to get the seat, advice having been received that opinion of senatorial leaders was to the effect that the governor would have to call a special session of the legislature before being able to make the appointment. Mr. Clayton will be a candidate for election before the people and will be opposed by Congressman R. P. Hobson, who has been in the senatorial race several months.

NO MORE FLYING FOR ME, SAYS REID

Aviator Hearkens to Mother's Plea to Stay on Ground.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Viewing the total wreck of his $6,000 hydroaeroplane as it lay upon the beach at the inlet, Marshall Earle Reid, well known aviator, who for two years has furnished thrills at shore resorts and elsewhere, said:

"I am through with flying for good. I'll consider myself lucky in this tumble and call it square. If there is anything exciting in the game that I have not tried out in the two years of my career as an aviator I shall leave it for some one else to tackle. For me it is no more playing the bird man. I do not exactly regret having been in the business, for I have made $12,000."

"My mother has urged me time and again to stop flying. I think she knows better than I do myself that the money is not worth it. My other relatives have joined in pleading with me also. I guess I'll heed this call now."

"One thing I am thankful for, and this is that no human life has been laid as a sacrifice to my experiments in aviation. It was a close call, they tell me, but here I am, and mighty lucky, I think, to be here. Anyway, I'll take the tumble as a friendly hint to seek some other means of livelihood. So it's me for the dry and solid land hereafter."

Reid was reminded of his mother's desire that he should quit aviation by the loss of a ring that his mother gave him.

Natural Tweezers.

Indian tweezers are simply a small pair of clamshells, with edges clean and hinge unbroken. "The old time Indians," writes Ernest Thompson Seton in "The Book of Woodcraft and Indian Lore," "had occasionally a straggly beard. They had no razor, but they managed to do without one. As a part of their toilet for special occasions they pulled out each hair by means of the clamshell nippers."

Shoeing Horses.

The art of shoeing horses to protect their hoofs against the evils of hard usage was unknown to the Greeks and Romans and is first mentioned in the history of the Celts as late as the fifth century.

DAYTON ADOPTS CHARTER BY TREMENDOUS MAJORITY

Dayton, O., Aug. 13.—Dayton yesterday voted to adopt a charter calling for the business manager form of government, those in favor of the charter rolling up a total of 13,217 votes while the best the opponents could do was a total of 6,042.

That the new charter carried by such a large majority was a great surprise to even the most ardent supporters of the business manager plan. The Socialists waged a bitter fight against the new form of government, but were unable to stem the tide of defeat that began to rise with the opening of the polls and continued until closing time was reached.

The ratification of the charter means that at the coming election in November, Daytonians will be asked to elect a commission of five citizens to govern their city. The one who receives the highest number of votes, being the Mayor, shall select a business manager for the city.

The manager shall be responsible for the whole fabric of government and is charged with the successful and economical operation of the public affairs. He will be assisted by five directors, each of whom will be in charge of a department, subject to his orders and directions.

PRETTY YOUNG NURSE'S LOVE TRAGEDY MAY BE REVEALED AT MURDER TRIAL

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Will Miss Emma E. Krill's love tragedy be laid bare as a warning to all young girls the country over? Miss Krill is the pretty young nurse who left a New York hospital with Dr. Stanley Tron and came here with him because she loved him. Now the doctor is dead, and the girl is held pending a formal charge of having poisoned him. She will have a hearing Aug. 14 and will be defended by J. Sidney Bernstein, who said friends of the accused had retained him, although it was admitted that Miss Krill had no money. It is charged by the state that Miss Krill was not married to the doctor and that she poisoned him because she thought he was going to leave her and go to Europe.

While there is nothing in Mr. Lind's instructions which would prevent him from calling on Provisional President Huerfano, it is not regarded that he would do so unless the latter had indicated his desire to receive the official stamp.

Certain international aspects of the situation here gave added interest to Mr. Lind's mission in Mexico. It became known that Japan, which had hitherto recognized the Huerta government, had practically decided not to recognize General Felix Diaz, special ambassador to express thanks for the participation by Japan in Mexico's centennial a few years ago. Likewise the statement of the British government, explaining that it as well as Germany and France had recognized the Huerta government after Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson had made a congratulatory speech to President Huerta, encouraged administration officials to believe that the foreign powers would give their moral support to the efforts of President Wilson through constitutional processes to influence the restoration of peace in Mexico.

PIQUA POSTOFFICE FIGHT DEVELOPES SCANDALOUS TURN

Editor Chas. E. Dale, of The Troy Times Appears Before the Senate Sub-Committee Armed With a Substantial Statement of Grievances.

ADMITS THAT HEARSAY IS BASIS FOR MAJORITY

On The Application of Pomerene and Post Further Hearing is Postponed Until August 22nd—Prince Notified to Come on And Defend Himself.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The long-deferred hearing in the Piqua (Ohio) Postoffice case was held yesterday by the Senate subcommittee, before whom Charles E. Dale, of Troy, editor of the Troy Times and Chairman of the Miami County Democratic Executive Committee, appeared and filed written charges of a highly sensational nature against Dr. Will S. Prince, who was nominated for the Piqua Postmastership on the recommendation of Representative J. D. Post of Washington C. H.

The statement was signed by W. R. Thompson, Secretary of the Executive Committee, but who was not present. Dale was accompanied by Rev. E. C. Dinwiddie, congressional agent of the Anti-Saloon League. Wayne B. Wheeler, Superintendent of the league in Ohio, failed to put in an appearance.

Pomerene and Post conferred together and then asked the committee for time in which to submit a rebuttal. This was granted, and a further hearing was set for August 22.

The full nature of the charges was mailed tonight by Post to Prince, and the candidate was asked to vindicate himself.

The charges were in the nature of an unsworn statement prepared by the committee in the hand writing of one of its members. Dale admitted that much of the charges are hearsay and innuendo. In addition to the rebuttal to be offered by Post and his witnesses at the next hearing Dale and his conferees are expected to submit evidence supporting their accusations. Because of the nature of these charges the Piqua squabble has now assumed a serious turn.

In a way Dr. Prince is on trial for his reputation. If only a part of the charges against him can be sustained Post would probably consent to the withdrawal of his nomination.

Dale also made the verbal statement that Post had promised the Executive Committee that in the event of the election of a Democratic national ticket and himself he would abide by the Executive Committee's selections for the six presidential offices in Miami county.

When Post failed to abide by this pledge Dale asserted, he was punished by Governor Cox in the gerrymander bill, which removed Post from a Democratic district and placed him in one which is heavily Republican. Dale said that Post's enemies in Miami county had gone to the Governor, and as a result of their visit the gerrymander bill was drawn to injure Post's political future.

The formal statement submitted by Dale bears the caption of having been adopted by the Miami County Executive Committee. It takes up for the most part Prince's alleged actions in connection with his services as a member of the Piqua Board of Public Safety and President of the Piqua Board of Education.

It is charged that some of the contracts for fire department equipment let by Prince were irregular.

It also is charged that Prince received money from the Dayton Brewers Company, and that he accepted gifts from manufacturers of supplies for fire departments.

Dr. J. W. Montgomery, according to the statement, pastor of the largest congregation in Piqua and personally acquainted with President Wilson, has written a letter to Mr. Wilson declaring that the appointment of Prince "would be a political and moral incongruity."

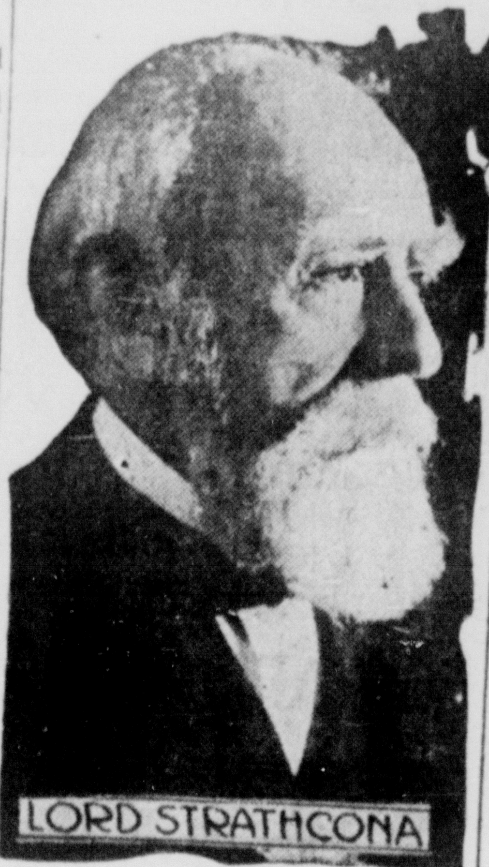

Another general charge attacks Prince's regularity as a Democrat. It declares that he supported Harmon and that after the nomination of Wilson he became sympathetic with the Bull Moose campaign, trying to trade his support to the Bull Moose ticket for Bull Moose votes for Post.

The committee claims that the recent investigation of Prince made by Postoffice inspectors was perfunctory and that the inspectors made no effort to follow up evidence given to him.

Post has called upon Prince to answer these charges in detail and the Congressman is confident of his candidate's ability to do so. It is believed that a lively session will result when the Senate committee meets for the hearing.

HARDSHIPS GOOD FOR LONG LIFE, DECLARES LORD STRATHCONA, 93

London, Aug. 13.—Hardships cause long life. Lord Strathcona, the "grand old man of England and Canada," who celebrated his ninety-third birthday recently made this statement:

"No man's life has been filled with more hardships than mine, and yet I am happy and healthy and believe that I will live to be one hundred. My early experiences in Canada were filled with the hardest kind of work, and I have never gone out of my way to avoid stress, nor distress either, for that matter."

BIG CUT ORDERED IN EXPRESS CHARGES

In Some Instances Rates Will Be Lower Than by Mails.

Washington.—The interstate commerce commission has ordered the express companies to lower their rates, improve their service and modify their practices and systems of accounts. The order issued by the commission radically lowers the rates on express packages under fifty pounds.

The reductions, which range from 10 to 60 per cent, with an average of 15 per cent, will cost the companies $25,000,000, or nearly 16 per cent of their gross revenue, it is estimated.

The new rates become effective Oct. 15 and continue for two years. It is believed that it will require two years to try out the proposed schedules. In making the order Commissioner Marble said the report and order lay the following requirements upon the express companies:

The adoption of the block system of stating rates; the establishment of a uniform classification; the publication of a joint directory of express stations; the publication jointly of the pick up and delivery limits at each station; the adoption of revised rules and regulations.

Under the present method of compiling tariffs, 800,000,000 separate rates are published by the express companies. Under the block system the number is reduced to 650,000. The United States is to be divided into 950 blocks, averaging 2,500 square miles to the block.

The most important change is in the modification of the present graduated scale of parcel rates. The 100 pound rates for short distances have either been left unchanged or have been left unchanged. For long distances the 100 pound rates have been somewhat reduced.

MRS. EATON'S TRIAL SET.

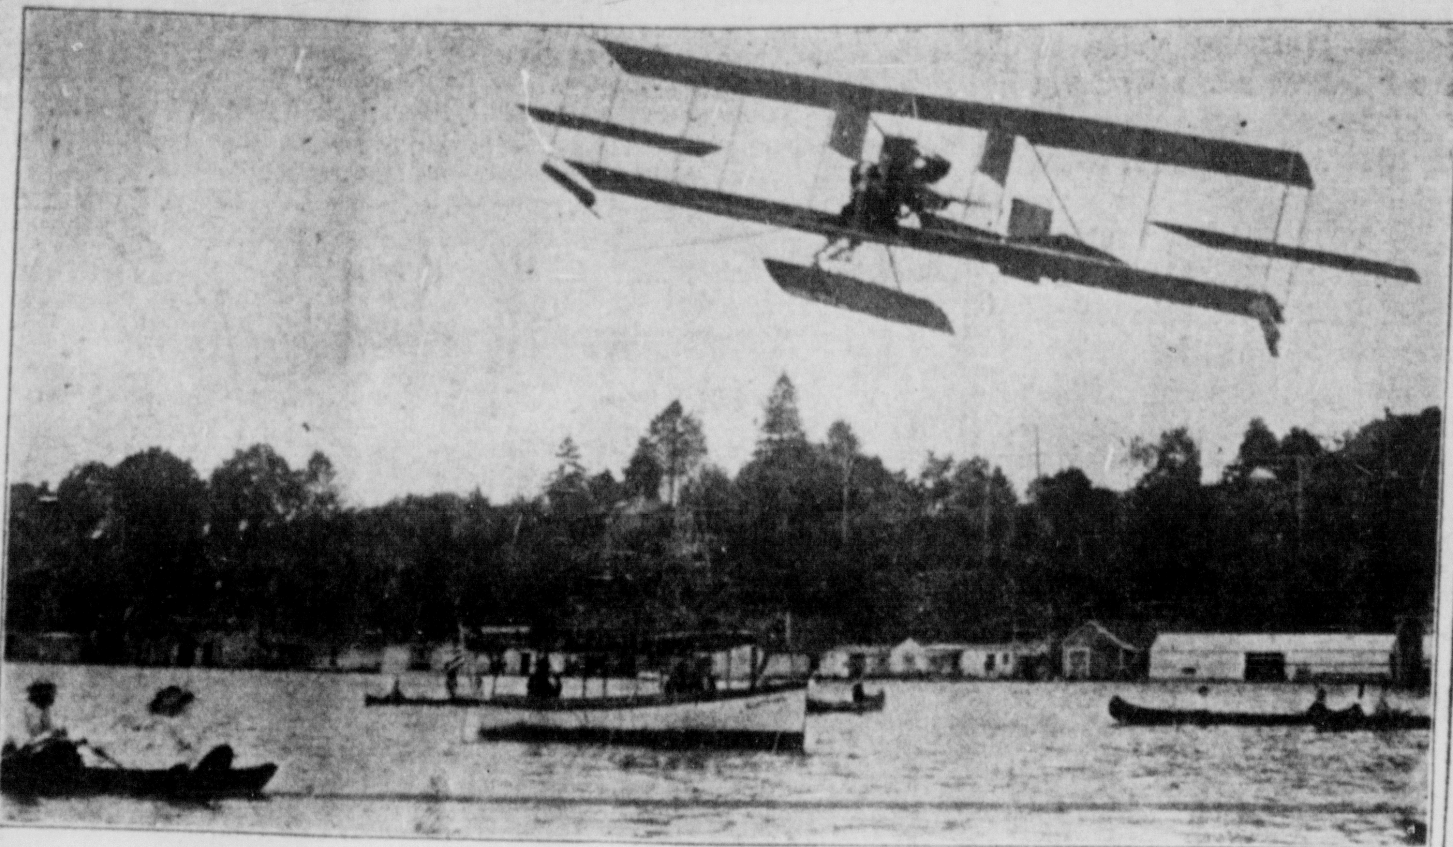

Must Face Jury Oct. 13 For Murder of Admiral.

Greenfield, Mass.—Chief Justice Aiken of the superior court has ordered that the trial of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, for the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton, be called at Plymouth on Oct. 13. Mrs. Eaton was arrested twelve days after the admiral died from poisoning at their home in Assinippi, on March 8. With the exception of two brief appearances in court she has since been in jail at Plymouth.

Mrs. Eaton is accused of having placed poison in coffee and other food prepared for the admiral.

Observe the face of the wife to know the husband's character.—Spanish Proverb.

DARING AVIATOR IS COMING NEXT WEEK

Col. A. C. Beech, making a flight at Coney Island.

A. C. Beech, the famous aviator who will fly at the Fair next week is known as one of the most sensational flyers in America, and when he gives his exhibitions here will perform some truly wonderful feats in aviation.

Mr. Beech is flying under the same management that handled the late Paul Peck who made some beautiful flights at the fair last year. The machine that Aviator Beech will use here is of the same type that Peck gave his exhibitions in. In fact, Beech is using the same engine that was used at the fair last year, and which crushed the life out of Col. Peck in Chicago a few weeks after he appeared here.

One of the most startling feats Aviator Beech will perform is when hundreds of feet in the air he will cut his engine off and come down to the earth in beautiful glides.

His altitude climbing will be most wonderful to behold, as he thinks nothing of climbing up a few thousand feet in the air, just to see what the country looks like.

Vast throngs are expected to witness Aviator Beech's thrilling flights both days next week.

MACHINE ARRIVES TODAY

The Beech biplane arrived in this city Wednesday in charge of mechanic D. B. Phillips, who was with Col. Peck last year.

The machine is still in the car at the Pennsylvania depot.

GEORGE WEAVER SERIOUSLY INJURED WHEN HORSE FALLS

George Weaver, a well known farmer of near Selden and brother to County Commissioner Edwin Weaver, was seriously injured during the matinee races about 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when his horse, Jesse J. fell hurling him through the air for a distance of 20 feet, causing him to strike the ground upon his head and shoulders.

The accident occurred in the first heat of Class B pace, near the three-eighths post, and he was picked up in an unconscious condition. Temporary aid was rendered and an ambulance was summoned to transfer him to a hospital.

A serious pile-up nearly resulted when Mr. Weaver's horse went down, but the other horses did not strike him.

When some 200 yards further on in the same race, Raymond R. fell crashing into the fence. The driver was not seriously injured and the horse escaped without being hurt.

Mr. Weaver was taken to the Fayette hospital, arriving shortly before three o'clock.

At the hospital it was found that Mr. Weaver had suffered a serious concussion of the brain and the bones of right hand were broken.

At 3:30 o'clock he was still in a semi-conscious condition and the physicians stated that it would require some 24 hours to ascertain whether or not the concussion is of a very serious nature.

LAND RUSH DRAWS HUNDREDS

Ten Thousand Acres to Be Opened at Dodge City, Kan.

Dodge City, Kan.—With a company of state militia present to prevent enactment of violent scenes that characterized land opening in early days, a run for government land was arranged from this place. The prizes are the pick of 10,000 acres of government land in Hamilton county.

Several hundred prospective settlers were present early, looking over government maps and picking out spots they think most desirable. The horse, hero of earlier openings, seems to have been succeeded by motorcycles and motorcars, although some of the new homeseekers declare their mounts are more reliable because of possible breakdowns of the motor vehicles. At a given signal the settlers are allowed to start from the border of the reservation. First come, first served, is the rule, and the men with the speediest methods of transportation get the choice land.

The land set aside for settlement is a part of the government forest reserve set apart by congress a number of years ago. The government's experiment in trying to grow trees there has not proved successful, and 10,000 acres of the reservation is to be given back to the county for agricultural purposes.

Literature. "Do you consider literature an art or a science?" asked the very serious girl. "Neither," replied Mr. Penwiggie. "It's a great big gamble, in which anybody is permitted to write his own lottery ticket."—Washington Star.

USED KEROSENE BURNED TO DEATH

Ten-Year-Old Child Residing Near New Holland Meets Fearful Death While Attempting to Kindle Fire In the Family Cook Stove—Body of Samuel Sigman's Daughter is Literally Cooked and Child Dies in Great Agony.

Francis, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sigman, residing a few miles from New Holland on the Mt. Sterling pike, was burned to death Tuesday while trying to start a fire in the cook stove by using coal oil. The can exploded, throwing the burning oil all over the little girl.

The child was alone in the room at the time and her clothing was burned almost entirely off before assistance arrived and helped extinguish the flames. Her body was literally cooked, and after lingering a short time in great pain she passed away.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Union church in New Holland Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, and a large number of friends gathered to witness the last sad rites. Burial was made in the New Holland cemetery.

ENGINE GIVES OUT TRAIN HOURS LATE

Tuesday the north bound passenger train on the D. T. & I. due here at 2:52, arrived about eight o'clock and another engine was necessary before it could proceed, which it did about nine o'clock, more than six hours late. The engine was in a very bad state of repair.

The south bound train Tuesday arrived at one o'clock. A wreck in the yards at Springfield was responsible for the delay.
